

1. There are 604 candies in the storeroom. A shop orders 1000 candies. How many candies will be left in the storeroom?
2. There are 1000 candies in the storeroom. A shop places an order for 310 candies. How many candies will be left in the storeroom?
3. There are 599 candies in the storeroom. The factory makes 396 more candies. How many candies will there be in the storeroom now?
4. There are 812 candies in the storeroom. A shop orders 516 candies. How many candies will be left in the storeroom?

1. There are 346 candies in the storeroom. The factory makes 554 more candies. How many candies will there be in the storeroom now?
2. There are 902 candies in the storeroom. A shop places an order for 279 candies. How many candies will be left in the storeroom?
3. There are 518 candies in the storeroom. A shop places an order for 712 candies. How many more candies will the factory need to make to fill the order?
4. There are 873 candies in the storeroom. A shop orders 594 candies. How many candies will be left in the storeroom?

Factory Word TH 2